LGIU

Resources: what you need, when you need it

Research: for the future of local government

Reach: connecting the global local government community

Reasons to be anxious no money

volatile policy context trust deficit

Reasons to be cheerful collaborative leadership horizontal power

new ways of measuring what's good

What we need to do use data

build services around citizens promote a sustainable local economy:

uncompromising focus on participation and dialogue

The LGIU (Local Government Information Unit) is a not-for-profit, non-partisan membership organisation. We keep local government informed, engaged and connected. Visit www.lgiu.org today and join our local government community.
